The OEA Foundation offers thirty-one (31) scholarships for the sons/daughters/grandchildren of Omaha Education Association members, Omaha Education Association-Retired members or the NSEA-affiliated Omaha Administrators Association members who are former OEA members. Applicants must be graduating seniors planning to pursue a post-secondary education. For current members, a minimum of three (3) years of OEA membership is required for the applicant to be considered for the above-named scholarships.

A very important consideration for the awarding of these scholarships is the involvement of the parent/grandparent in the OEA. There is no restriction as to the field of study to be pursued. The applicant's character and behavior must be outstanding and should positively reflect a credit to their teachers and to the OEA Foundation.

How are you related to the OEA or OEA-Retired member? _____

Name of OEA or OEA-Retired member: _____

Name of school where they are teaching or OPS schools where they taught (max of 3) and the number of years at each school. If they taught at more than 3 schools, list the three where they had the longest tenure and add "additional schools, 'x' number of years."

List the OEA or OEA-Retired activities/services in which the parent/grandparent has participated. This should include all OEA committees and offices held including AR, work done for endorsed candidates and service on joint OEA/OPS committees as a representative of the OEA. (100 words max):
