

BYLAWS OF THE
OMAHA EDUCATION ASSOCIATION
(Revised May 2024)

ARTICLE I – MEMBERSHIP

Section 1. Classes

The membership shall consist of two classes: active, and substitute.

Section 2. Active Member Eligibility

- (a) Active Professional: Any person engaged in or on a leave of absence from the profession (teaching, substitute teaching under contract, supervision or administration, etc.) and wishing to join the Association shall be an active member. Active professional members shall hold or be eligible to hold a baccalaureate or higher degree or the regular teaching, vocational or technical certificate required by their employment.
- (b) Active Educational Support Professional: Any person who is employed or who is on a leave of absence from an educational support position (paraeducators, clerical, custodial, transportation, food service, etc.) in a school district, college or university, or other institution devoted primarily to educational work and wishing to join the Association shall be an active member unless under a bargaining unit of another union.

Section 3. Partial Year Membership Dues

Any person:

- (a) Who becomes eligible for Active membership after the commencement of the membership year, eligibility for membership will be the same as NSEA eligibility for membership, or
- (b) Who returns to professional educational employment or to an educational support position from a limited leave of absence after the commencement of the membership year shall be enrolled in full standing for the remainder of the membership year by paying the amount of annual dues that is commensurate with the remaining portion of the membership year.

Section 4. Member Censure, Suspension or Expulsion

The censure, suspension or expulsion of an association member for violation of the Code of Ethics of the Education Profession or for conduct not in the best interest of the Association must be conducted by and in compliance with the NSEA and NEA. (Refer to Article IX, Section 4 for the NSEA Bylaws)

ARTICLE II – MAINTENANCE OF EFFORT

Section 1.

- (a) Membership in the Omaha Education Association, the Nebraska State Education Association, and the National Education Association shall continue until revoked in writing by the member to their local president and/or the NSEA business office, prior to August 31.

While membership can be ended at any time, the member is still obligated to pay the full and complete amount of annual dues and/or contributions pursuant to the terms authorized in the membership agreement, including those terms that concern the annual renewal of the dues obligation and govern the process for revoking the payment authorization. The association president, or designee, shall inform the NSEA business office of the member's desire to terminate membership and financial obligation effective September 1 of the year in question.

Members who retire, resign or otherwise cease employment with the employer at the end of the school year will automatically be removed from the membership list at the start of the next membership year and any continuing dues obligation will cease at that time.

ARTICLE III - Rights of Members

Section 1. Active members shall have the right to vote and hold elective office or appointive positions. In addition, active members shall receive, or be eligible to receive, all special services, obtain assistance in the protection of professional and civil rights, and receive all publications of the association.

Section 2. Members shall be guaranteed due process and the right of appeal in reference to disputes regarding membership.

Section 3. Substitute members shall have only those rights afforded to that class of membership and shall, except as otherwise provided, be ineligible to vote and hold elective office.

Article IV - Responsibilities of Members

So all members may fully exercise their democratic right to participate in Association activities, events, and meetings free from harassment, intimidation, and other such unacceptable behavior, the hereby establishes the following conduct is unacceptable at any and all Association events and interactions with members.

In the interest of intentionally fostering goodwill and trust and protecting the rights of all individuals to dignity and mutual respect, it is expected all members:

- Respect others and their views;
- Recognize and value individual differences;
- Promote mutual respect, understanding and cooperation as the basis of interactions amongst participants in Association activities, events, or meetings;
- Maintain the reputation of the Association by conducting themselves in accordance with high standards of professionalism.

- (c) In case a member of the Board of Directors changes status in the Omaha Public Schools (is moved to a position outside the group that elected the member) during the first year of their term, they will serve until July 31.
- (d) Elected members of the OEA Board of Directors shall not be eligible for the position of Association Representative Captain.
- (e) The Association shall guarantee ethnic minority representation on the Board of Directors in proportion to the ethnic minority membership in the Association. The meaning of "ethnic minority" shall at all times correspond to the definition in the Bylaws of the National Education Association. If no ethnic minorities are represented on the Board after the general election, the Association Representative Assembly shall elect an additional director(s) for a one-year term at the October General Assembly. Candidates for this position shall be nominated by the ethnic minority delegates at the General Assembly.

Section 6. Candidates Restrictions

The following restrictions will be placed on candidates:

- (a) Candidates for the Board of Directors shall have completed a minimum of one year active membership in the Omaha Education Association.
- (b) No person may be a candidate for election to more than one office on the Board of Directors.
- (c) If a member of the Executive Team or Board of Directors is removed from office or is asked to resign for reasons other than personal matters such as family concerns or health reasons, they will not be allowed to run for a board seat or executive seat in the future. (See Policy 3130)
- (d)

Section 7. Candidate Nominations

Candidates may be secured:

- (a) By personal filing of the candidate for office. Personal filing must be in the OEA office by 5:00 P.M. the day before the February meeting of the Association Representative Assembly.
- (b) By nominations made in the Association Representative Assembly at its February meeting.
- (c) By filing of the Nominating Committee.

Section 8. Verification of Eligibility

Governance Committee shall verify the eligibility of candidates for the OEA Board of Directors at the close of nominations prior to candidates receiving a list of members in order to campaign.

Section 9. Nominating Committee

The Association Representative Assembly shall, at its January meeting elect a nominating committee of not less than five nor more than eleven members from its membership present at the January meeting. The duties of the committee shall be:

- (a) In the event there is no eligible candidate for an elective position, the Nominating Committee shall secure at least one candidate for that position.
- (b) In the event a person nominated for a position is determined to be ineligible for the position, or withdraws nomination, and no other candidate has been duly nominated for that position, the Nominating Committee shall secure at least one candidate for that position.
- (c) The Nominating Committee shall meet within three days after the February Association Representative Assembly and shall forward to the Governance Committee by the first Tuesday following the February Assembly the name of the candidate(s) for the position.

Section 10. Election by Acclamation

In the event there is only one candidate for an elective office, that candidate shall be declared elected to that position.

Section 11. Election Review Board

- (a) An Election Review Board shall be elected by the Association Representatives at the January Association Representative Assembly Meeting.
- (b) A member of the Review Board shall not hold, or be, a candidate for any elective position on the Board of Directors in the Association or its affiliates.
- (c) The Review Board will consist of seven members:
 - (a) Two members from the elementary level.
 - (b) Two members from the middle level.
 - (c) Two members from the senior high level.
 - (d) One member from the Alternative Education/TAC/Program level.

Members are elected to a three-year term.

The Association shall guarantee at least two ethnic minority representatives on the Review Board. The meaning of “ethnic minority” shall at all times correspond to the definition in the Bylaws of the National Education Association. If the required number of ethnic minorities is not represented on the Review Board after the annual election for the Review Board, the Association Representative Assembly shall at the same meeting elect the required number of ethnic minority members for a one-year term. Candidates for these positions shall be nominated by the ethnic minority delegates at the Association Representative Assembly.

A vacancy on the Review Board shall be filled for the remainder of that term at the next regular meeting of the Association Representative Assembly.

(d) Written documentation of violations of campaign rules shall be brought before the Election Review Board, and may result in the candidate’s name being stricken from the ballot and/or election of such candidate being deemed invalid.

- (1) Written documentation of violations of campaign rules may be submitted by any member to the Election Review Board as soon as possible, but no later than five working days after the OEA posts the election results. The Election Review Board shall be immediately called to address the alleged violations.
- (2) The Review Board procedures shall be based on the current edition of Robert’s Rules of Order.
- (3) The Review Board will report its findings to the person bringing the allegation and to the OEA Board within five working days of receipt of notice of the alleged violation.
- (4) Decisions of the Review Board may be appealed to the OEA Board of Directors. An appeal by the person bringing the allegation or the alleged violator must be submitted to the Executive Committee. This must occur within two working days of their receipt of the findings of the Review Board. The Executive Committee shall transmit the appeal to the Board of Directors at its next regular meeting.

Section 12. Conduction of Elections
The Governance Committee shall:

- (a) Have full charge of all elections, recalls, contract ratifications, and referendums.
- (b) See that a “Who's Who” of the candidates for election is prepared and available for membership.
- (c) Receive and count all electronic and/or paper ballots, keep all ballots secure until destroyed by action of the OEA Board of Directors; prepare and report the official vote on the election.
- (d) Conduct the election on the second Monday after nominations are held. The election will open at 5 pm and will close the following Monday at 5 pm.
- (e) Follow the procedures for the handling, voting, and tabulation of all elections of the OEA.

Each candidate may designate one observer to be present when ballots for their position are counted. Observers must maintain an appropriate distance from those counting ballots and not interfere with the process.

Section 13. Paper Ballots

When utilizing paper ballots, the Governance Committee shall distribute the ballots to the active membership, and shall return the ballots and voting register immediately following the election.

- (a) All OEA membership receiving a paper ballot must sign an attendance register.

Section 14. Plurality/Majority Determination

- (a) Plurality of votes cast shall determine the results in elections, with the exception of officers. A person is said to have a plurality vote when that person has more votes for a certain position than any of that person's rivals.
- (b) A majority of votes cast shall determine the results of the elections for officers. In the event that none of the candidates receive a majority of the votes cast, a run-off election between the two candidates with the most votes shall take place as determined by the Governance Committee. A person is said to have a majority of the vote when that person has more than 50% of the votes cast.
- (c) Upon verification of any tie, a run-off election will be held between those candidates starting the day after the results and will conclude Friday at 4:00 pm of the same week.

Section 15. Recall of Officers

An officer of the Association may be recalled from office for violation of the Nebraska Code of Ethics, violations stated in the OEA Board Policy Book, or failure to comply with the mandates of the membership for the advancement of the Association; in the following manner:

- (a) Any member of the Association Representative Assembly or General Assembly may enter a recall petition from the floor. The petition must contain specific charges related to a violation of the Nebraska Code of Ethics, violations stated in the OEA Board Policy Book, or failure to comply with the mandates of the membership for the advancement of the Association. The petition must be signed by at least two hundred members of the Association.
- (b) At the Association Representative Assembly at which the petition is submitted, the Association Representative Assembly shall concur with a majority roll call vote. If the members of the Association Representative Assembly do not concur with the recall petition there will be no hearing nor a second vote.
- (c) If the members of the Association Representative Assembly concur with the recall petition there shall be a second vote to be conducted at the next regular Association Meeting. Before the second roll call vote, the accused shall have the right to a hearing and to present the case before the Assembly with right of counsel.
- (d) With concurrence of the second Association Representative Assembly, Governance Committee shall take the issue to the general membership by referendum.
- (e) An officer of the Association may be recalled from office by two-thirds vote of the votes cast.

Section 16. Recall of Board Members

A member of the Board of Directors may be recalled from office in the same manner as an officer, with the following variations;

- (a) With the concurrence of the Assembly as outlined, the Governance Committee shall take the issue to the group represented by the board member.
- (b) A member of the Board of Directors may be recalled from office by a two-thirds vote of the votes cast by the group electing the member.

Section 17. Vacancies.

- (a) If a vacancy should occur in the office of OEA President, the Vice President with seniority in consecutive years of service as Vice President shall assume the duties of the office of OEA President for the duration of the term.
- (b) If the Vice President with seniority in consecutive years of service as Vice President declines to accept the office of OEA President, the Vice President with less seniority shall assume the duties of the office of OEA President for the duration of the term.
- (c) Should both Vice Presidents decline to accept the office of OEA President, the office of President shall stand for election. The senior Vice President shall assume the duties of the office of the President until said election occurs.
- (d) The position of the President shall be nominated from the floor of the next Association Representative Assembly. If said vacancy occurs after the May General Assembly, a special assembly shall be held for nominations.
- (e) In the event of more than one candidate for President, a general election will be held within one week of nominations.
- (f) In the event there is no eligible candidate for president, the Nominating Committee shall secure at least one candidate. In the event there is only one candidate for president that candidate shall be declared elected.
- (g) Vacancies on the OEA Board, or other than the President, shall be filled at the next regular meeting of the Association Representative Assembly. That person shall take office immediately and hold office for the remainder of the term.

Section 18. Board Meeting Absences
